

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Lisa Seborowski
410.279.1596

ANNAPOLIS ENTERTAINMENT COMPANY'S FILM
ACCEPTED INTO CINEVEGAS FILM FESTIVAL

Annapolis , MD (June 1st, 2006) “Danika”, a Blue Omega Entertainment an Annapolis based entertainment company, has been accepted into the 8th annual CineVegas Film Festival in Las Vegas, NV. The feature length film starring Oscar winner Marisa Tomei, will have it's world premiere at the Festival on June 10th at 8:30pm at the Palms Casino and Resort and Brenden Theatres in Las Vegas. “Danika”, based on an original screenplay by Joshua Leibner, is a psychological horror about a devoted wife and loving mother who experiences a series of terrifying delusions. She wonders whether she is actually having visions of future events or she is slowly slipping into insanity.

The film was directed by Ariel Vromen and produced by Mark Roberts, Lorena David, Michael Urbanski, Richard Allen and John F. K. Parenteau . CineVegas has established itself as one of the hottest and fastest growing film festival in the world, highlighting the most exciting offerings from up and coming filmmakers and visionary veterans.

CineVegas combines the glamour and energy of world premiere films and the intensity of in-depth celebrity tributes. The festival has honored such talents as: Jack Nicholson, Christopher Walken, Nicolas Cage, Holly Hunter, Sean Penn, David Lynch, as well as Festival Advisory Board Chairman Dennis Hopper.

Michael Urbanski, CEO of Blue Omega and local Annapolitan, founded Blue Omega, a subsidiary of Heavy Hammer, based in Annapolis, MD in November 2003 as a leading-edge entertainment company specializing in feature film and video game production. "Dark Ride", Blue Omega's first feature film is currently being released later this year. Within the game industry, Blue Omega's dynamic team provides innovative and unique products. With over 30 years of entertainment experience combined, Blue Omega's team works from original Intellectual Property (IP) through development, production and ultimately delivery of a very marketable product. Blue Omega's first foray into the video game market is the critically acclaimed "Damnation: Hell Breaks Loose", which was a winner in the "Make Something Unreal" contest, hosted by Epic Games and sponsored by NVIDIA Corp.

Blue Omega Entertainment is currently in the pre-production stages of a third feature length horror film which will begin principle photography in the Fall of 2006 and be produced entirely in Maryland.

###